Wednesday 24 February
6.30pm
Rooftop Pavilion, Level X
RMIT Design Hub
Building 100, Corner Victoria and
Swanston Streets, Carlton

The menu will be made through a process of exchange between Martino and Hotel Hotel executive head chef, Sean McConnell.

Martino will feed Sean some recipes; which Sean will interpret and feed to us.

Please bring a much-loved wine glass to the dinner to use. Treasured objects are like strongly held opinions. Sometimes it's good to let them go. So at the end of the night you'll be invited to swap your glass with someone you've met at dinner.

MARTINO

Renowned for his cross-disciplinary and culturally responsive approach to design, London-based Martino Gamper came to major acclaim with 100 Chairs in 100 Days. In this project Gamper collected disused chairs from alleyways and friends' homes and reassembled them — one per day — into poetic and often humorous forms. Shown in Australia for the first time at RMIT Design Hub, 100 Chairs in 100 Days is an experiment in transforming limitations into possibilities.
