

New to Canberra is Hotel Hotel by architects Fender Katsalidis (who conceived Tasmania's MoNA). The interior elements, curated by designer Don Cameron, are a collaboration of more than 50 artists, designers and makers including Charles Wilson, Adam Goodrum and Mareh Studio. (02) 6287 6287; hotel-hotel.com.au.

The Louis Vuitton Fleur de Monogram gold charm, $480, is a sweet floral motif for your handbag or luggage. Call 1300 883 880.

PURPLE RAIN

Inspired by the rain-soaked streets of London, Jo Malone's limited-edition London Rain cologne collection includes 'Black Cedarwood & Juniper', a seductive blend of cumin, chilli, juniper and cedarwood to capture the essence of a midnight rainstorm in the city. $180 for 100ml, available from 22 March. Call 1800 661 062.

AROUND THE WORLD

THE NEWEST TRAVEL ESSENTIALS AND MUST-VISIT DESTINATIONS.

SOFT TOUCH

Getting on a plane in one climate and stepping off in another can wreak havoc on a well-travelled wardrobe. Perfect for alternating climates, and for the plane journey in-between, are these two-metre-long pure cashmere 'Jet Set' scarves from Everyday Cashmere, available in a range of colours. $240 each. Call (02) 9417 3813; everydaycashmere.com.

FOUND A NEW HOLIDAY DESTINATION? Tweet to @VogueLiving #loveVL

LATIN QUARTERS

Set in the heart of Rio de Janeiro's charming and bohemian Santa Teresa district is Maria Santa Teresa, a new project from Design Hotels. Visualised as a cultural hub for both locals and travellers to gather, and open only until December, the boutique hotel will host a calendar year of traditional Brazilian festivities and feasts. Upstairs, six guest rooms feature herringbone wood floors, rawhide rugs and panoramic views. Those in town for football's World Cup take note. Rates from $530 a night; designhotels.com.

