

ARTICHOKE

Australia's interiors and design magazine

Issue 49

Eat Drink Design Awards
Workplaces in a digital age
Emporium Melbourne

Issue 49 Aus $14.95

9 771442 095008 04

11

(11) 2014 Intergrain Timber Vision Awards announced

The winners of the 2014 Intergrain Timber Vision Awards were announced in August, recognizing the creative and inspired applications of timber in commercial and residential projects. The winners were: Nishi by March Studio [pictured] for Commercial Interior Award; The Commons by Breathe Architecture for Commercial Exterior Award; Lilyfield Warehouse by Virginia Kerridge Architects for Residential Interior Award; and Stonewood by Breathe Architecture for Residential Exterior Award.

photography JOHN GOLLINGS
 —
 Intergrain
intergrain.com.au

(12) Georb Linear pendants

Adelaide furniture designer Justin Hermes is behind the design of these wooden pendants, which are made from reclaimed Oregon and salvaged oak. Hermes found beauty and inspiration in the pieces of timber left over when creating his bespoke work, and these took on a geometric form to give warmth to bare light bulbs. He designed the Georb Linear pendants after being commissioned to illuminate a public display of proposals for the Open Ideas Royal Adelaide Hospital site design competition.

—
 Justin Hermes Design
justinhermesdesign.blogspot.com.au

12

13

(13) The Piggery Cafe

Chef and restaurateur Shannon Bennett, best known for his restaurant Vue de Monde, has launched a gastronomic village in Victoria's Dandenong Ranges. Burnham Beeches will incorporate a bakery, cafe, microbrewery, market garden, steakhouse, trufferie, emu farm, artist-in-residence facilities, private villas and a boutique hotel. The Piggery Cafe and adjoining Burnham Bakery were the first to open as part of the project. The cafe, designed by Woods Bagot, features warm materials, exposed concrete walls and copper pipe detailing. Best Group managed the design and construction of the project's branding and wayfinding signage.

photography BRIANA DAVIS
 —
 Woods Bagot
woodsbagot.com